

Victim Advocate Program

Air Force Victim Advocates provide essential support, liaison services, and care to a sexual assault victim.

Victim Advocates are civilian employees selected by the SARC and have completed a 40-hour training course.

Victim Advocates are volunteers who must possess the maturity and experience to assist in very sensitive situations.

Responsibilities include:

- Providing crisis intervention, referral and on-going non-clinical support
- Providing information on available options and resources to assist the victim in making informed decisions about the case
- Services will continue until the victim states support is no longer needed
- Does NOT provide counseling or other professional services to a victim
- May accompany the victim, at the victim's request, during investigative interviews and medical examinations
